Minister's Message

Obon

Unlike Obon in Japan, Hawaii's Obon is not a four day festival (the 13th through 16th of July or August) but rather a whole season. Although the Buddhist holiday of Obon is on the 15th of July or the 15th of August, Obon in Hawaii begins in June and lasts through the end of August. During this time, every weekend finds some Buddhist temple celebrating, Obon or Kangi-e (The Gathering of Joy) with special services and Bon Dance.

Like so many other Japanese festivals, Obon is a mixture of Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism, and Hindu traditions. From Indian Buddhism comes the custom of feasting, donating to the Sangha, and honoring the gods with lights. In China, the Hindu custom of lights at festivals combined with the Taoist tradition of offering square lantern lights to the ancestors. The Indian Festival of Lights (Divali) in honor of 7 generations of deceased ancestors was marked by the burning of welcome lights and sending off lights. This became associated in China with the Taoist festival of Chung-yuen (Chugen in Japanese) and the Buddhist Obon Festival centers around the story of Mogallana. The three festivals happened to fall on or near the 15th day of the 7th month and over the centuries, especially in Japan, the three traditions fused into the one Buddhist tradition of Obon.

In present-day Japan, Obon is although not a national holiday but like going home for Christmas in the U.S.; most Japanese go home for Obon. Obon begins on July 13th and ends on July 16th or begins on August 13th and ends August 16th. This difference depends on the region. The first two days are usually spent in cleaning the family Butsudan and visiting family graves, cleaning the gravesites, and offering flowers, incense, and food. In temples, homes, and graveyards, "Mukaebi" or "Welcome Lights" are lit to welcome the spirits of the deceased who are believed to return to the realm of the living for these four days. Depending on the area of Japan, the lights might be simple candles, small oil lamps, or various kinds of paper lanterns, the most ancient being square in shape.

The main day of Obon is the 15th when special services are held in the temples. This is followed in most areas of Japan by Bon Odori or folk dancing which reenacts the dancing for joy of the monk Mogallana. On the 16th "Okuribi" or "Sending-off Lights" are lit to see off the spirits of the ancestors who now leave the world of the living. Okuribi takes many forms, from simple candles to lanterns floated on rivers and in the ocean.

Jodoshinshu Buddhism is emphatic in its denial of wandering souls or spirits of the dead and the need to placate such spirits with offerings of food, incense, lights, rituals, etc. Obon in Jodoshinshu is called "Kangi-e" or "The Gathering of Joy." This means joy in the Nembutsu, the religious happiness which comes from seeing life and death clearly. An important part of seeing life and death clearly is the ability to remember and appreciate our ancestors, of all who have gone before us, and reverence for the Truth called Amida Buddha which makes us see that this is so. We chant, offer lights, food, and incense, and we Dance not to exorcise spirits or out of fear of retribution. We do these things as an offering to the Truth: from the truths of the continuing impact of deceased friends and 'relatives on our lives to the ultimate truth of life itself.

Obon is a memorial service for our ancestors, for all of those who have gone before us, for the whole of life that was before us. The Obon festival, in the many forms it takes in Hawaii temples, is our annual opportunity to participate in a religious activity which is designed to mentally, vocally, and physically expand and deepen our awareness of ourselves and others. It is an opportunity to test our sense of Nembutsu, our sense of being basically O.K.

Obon and Bon Odori is not only "a cultural thing." That's also the celebration of continuity in a constantly changing world. It is the recognition of Truth Eternal in the midst of Change Eternal.

On August 19th, 5:00 p.m. we will have Hatsu Bon Service. Again, O-Bon is a time to remember and honor all those who have passed on before us. Hatsu Bon is a special service for those who departed between last year's and this year's Bon. August 25th, 6:00p.m. will be our Obon Service with Rev. Joshin Kamuro, Associate Minister of Hawaii Betsuin, as special speaker, and Dance follows. We humbly ask for your Kokua and participation. Mahalo.

If you are homebound or in a care home or hospital, and would like Rev. Yagi to visit with you, please call him at 488-5685 to arrange a visit.

Family Memorial Service

In the Japanese Buddhist tradition, families hold memorial services (Nen-ki Hoyo) in memory of our loved ones, and to express our gratitude for Amida Buddha's Infinite Light.

The Buddha's Wisdom and Compassion embrace our loved ones in the land of peace and happiness. May we also remember Amida's embrace on our lives as we remember those who have departed.

If your family would like to arrange a memorial service for your loved one, please call Rev. Yagi at 488-5685. (please leave a message if no one is available). You may schedule the service either before or after the memorial date. The ideal time is when as many family members as possible will attend.

Nokotsudo (Columbarium)

If you would like to visit the Nokotsudo, please call the residence at 488-5685 or the office at 487-2626 at least two days in advance so that arrangements can be made to open the Nokotsudo for you. The best days to visit the Nokotsudo are Thursday and Sunday mornings.

WESTERN JAPAN FLOOD DISASTER RELIEF FUND.

Summer 2018 flooding throughout western Japan has killed over 220 people and dislocated many thousands. High temperatures and shortages of drinking water, food, and electricity have compounded the disaster. As of July 20th, at least 99 Jodo Shinshu temples were damaged. Members of at least 182 Jodo Shinshu temples were affected, with nearly 50 dead or missing.

Takahashi River, Wakayama Prefecture—Wikipedia

Hawaii Kyodan will immediately respond with an initial donation to Honzan from the Social Welfare Fund to help those impacted by flooding and landslides. Further, a “Western Japan Flood Relief Fund” has been created to allow temples, members and friends in Hawaii to contribute towards the relief effort. The funds will be sent to Honzan to support Hongwanji-related temples and those who are affected from this disaster.

The special collection will run through August 31, 2018. Aiea Hongwanji members please send in your donations with the notation “Western Japan Flood Relief Fund” noted on your check, and we will send in the total donation to Headquarters.

BWA EXCHANGE STUDENTS. The BWA Student Exchange program was first inaugurated in 1971 as one of the approved World Buddhist Women’s Convention resolutions. This year Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii Federation of Buddhist Women’s Associations will be hosting two girls from Japan from August 9 thru 16. They will visit Kauai, Hawaii Island and Honolulu United BWA.

PBA STUDENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN RSG SEMINAR. Ryukoku Sogo Gakuen (RSG) will be holding the 66th Religious Education Seminar at Honzan Hongwanji on August 3-5, 2018 and four students from Pacific Buddhist Academy (Chaperone: Ms. Liane Viloria) will travel to Japan to participate in the seminar. The objective of this seminar is to provide religious education to the students of RSG schools, and to develop the sense of awareness as the students of Sogo Gakuen by participating in the various programs with fellow students from other schools. The theme of this year’s seminar is “Let us reflect the “path” that we walk together.” RSG is a federation of 24 Hongwanji School Institutions which comprise a total of 68 schools. PBA has sister school arrangements with a number of the RSG Schools.

RSG EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR INTERNATIONAL UNDERSTANDING IN PBA. Ryukoku Sogo Gakuen (RSG) will be holding the Educational Program for International Understanding in Pacific Buddhist Academy on August 2 - September 15. The object of this new program is to nurture individuals with an international orientation founded on Buddhist values and perspectives through deepening their mutual understanding of differing cultures and societies. 18 students from 10 RSG high schools in Japan will have a homestay in Hawaii and attend PBA with the PBA students.

THE 60th ANNUAL HAWAII HONPA HONGWANJI MINISTERS ASSOCIATION SEMINAR. I would like to express my deepest appreciation to all ministers for their participation and all temples who supported this seminar.

The 60th State Ministers' Association Seminar was held at Ala Moana Hotel from June 12 to 14, 2018 hosted by Honolulu District Ministers' Association. The theme of the seminar was "Kaikyo Propagation" and the guest speaker was Rev. Gene Sekiya of International Center. The lectures based upon his own experiences were truly valuable to all ministers.

Today, many people have forgotten the importance of cultivating their spiritual life. As society gets more complicated, people face various different issues which we have never even imagined of. We, as ministers, who serve in current times, need to sincerely learn from our history and endeavor to find new approaches to share the Dharma. Rev. Sekiya's lectures deeply touched and encouraged us.

Again, thank you very much to all members and temples for giving us this wonderful opportunity to learn and share the joy of Dharma. Your continued support is truly appreciated. (Rev. Yuika Hasebe, Chair of the 60th State Ministers Association Seminar)

Affirmation Rites Ceremony (Kie-Shiki) will be held on Sunday, October 21, 2018 at 1:00pm at Wahiawa Hongwanji Mission.

"Kie" means to seek refuge, and in Buddhism, we mean to seek refuge in the Three Treasures of the Buddha, Dharma and Sangha. "Shiki" means ritual.

Affirmation rites are officiated by the Bishop of Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii. This ritual gives the recipient a definite awareness that s/he is becoming a follower of the Buddha's teachings and a member of the Hongwanji. During the rites, each recipient will receive his/her own Homyo (Dharma Buddhist Name) from the Bishop. If you wish to participate, application and fee ($50) must be sent in by Sept. 15, 2018.

Please contact Rev. Kojun Hashimoto at Wahiawa Hongwanji Mission for further information. Applications can be obtained at the Aiea Hongwanji office (email: aieajiko@gmail.com, PH: 487-2626).

PACIFIC BUDDHIST ACADEMY

Friend of PBA and the Buddhist Community, Pat Masters Left a Legacy of Service.

Pacific Buddhist Academy offers condolences to the family of Patricia Lee Masters, a revered teacher, writer, and longtime friend of the Hawai'i Buddhist community.

Pat passed away last month in Honolulu. A celebration of her life was held on Friday, July 20, at the Honpa Hongwanji Hawaii Betsuin at 1727 Pali Highway.

Pat Masters was born in Los Angeles, California, received her master's degree in Buddhist Studies from the University of California, Los Angeles, and a Ph.D. in Political Philosophy. Pat taught Buddhist Studies in India and Japan for 20 years. In her many professional roles in Hawai'i, she was president of the Hawai'i Association of International Buddhists, a teacher of meditation, and Associate Director of Student Equity, Excellence, and Diversity at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa.

Last spring, PBA hosted Pat for a presentation and signing of her book, Searching for Mary Foster, about a 19th-century Native Hawaiian Buddhist, philanthropist, and social activist. PBA Founders Hall was filled to standing room only with Pat's friends. The event lasted several more hours than planned as Pat, who was battling cancer, answered dozens of questions about her own life journey that led to her writing about Mary Foster. The room was filled with laughter, love, many conversations, and even a few tears. No one wanted to leave.

The total fundraising goal is $3 million. Our Hawaii goal is $11,000. We are asking for your support to help us honor these two important women and their contributions to Jodo Shinshu Buddhism.

Please send this form with your donation by Dec 31, 2018. Checks should be made payable to: Aiea Hongwanji BWA (please indicate EK chair in corner.) Donations from Aiea Hongwanji will be sent to the Hawaii Federation of Buddhist Women’s Associations with a list of temple members who donated. ## PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi everyone,

I hope you are in good spirits. We had a nice evening at Waianae Hongwanji's Bon Dance on Saturday evening, July 21st. Arlene, Mark, Mark, Jan, Kayla, Chad, Claire and I helped with sales in the food booth. It was a beautiful, warm and dry summer evening. Waianae Hongwanji is a popular place the evening of their annual Bon Dance. Over the years, it seems that more and more family members return to help the Waianae Hongwanji members celebrate O-Bon. The community embraces the celebration and comes out to enjoy the music, dancing and drums. Really nice evening and the Waianae people are so friendly. Also, the food after the dance is the best!

Last evening Claire and I attended a performance of Mary Poppins Jr. at the Earle Ernst Lab Theatre, a small theatre on the side of Kennedy Center at the University of Hawaii. The play was part of the summer program organized by Ohana Arts for children and young adults. Not so coincidentally, our two grandsons were in the play. The children have practiced all summer for these performances. I was so impressed by their talent, energy and discipline. They sang, danced and acted. They handled the props. The choreography was complicated but they danced and sang in time and in tune! These were children ranging in age from about 8-14. Great evening.

Aiea Hongwanji's Bon Celebration is on August 25th. We have discussed the work we need to do for Bon at our board meetings for the past few months. We will really be busy the entire month of August. If you are in good health and can walk, we could really use you. Please see the article in this Jiko letting you know how you can help. Even if you can't physically help, please try to make it to the temple to enjoy the evening! You can't go wrong. Hope to see you.

Amida Buddha surrounds all men and all forms of life with Infinite Love and Compassion. Particularly does he send forth loving thoughts to those in suffering and sorrow, those in doubt and ignorance, to those who are striving to attain Truth; and to those whose feet are standing close to the great change men call death, Amida Buddha sends forth oceans of Wisdom and Compassion.

GOLDEN CHAIN OF LOVE

I am a link in Amida Buddha's Golden Chain of Love that stretches around the world. I must keep my link bright and strong. I will try to be kind and gentle to every living thing and protect all who are weaker than myself. I will try to think pure and beautiful thoughts, to say pure and beautiful words and to do pure and beautiful deeds, knowing on what I do now depends not only on my happiness or unhappiness but also that of others. May every link In Amida Buddha's Golden Chain of Love become bright and strong and may we all attain Perfect Peace. Namo Amida Butsu.
